Comparative Majorities of 1855 and

The vote of the State at the late election from present appearances, has not been much beyond 85,000 or 90,000. Hence the vote of 1855, when 73,000 votes were east, forms probably a better basis of comparison than the vote of last year, Dartford when 120,000 votes were cast. We give below the majorities in the counties heard from, as reported, compared with the vote of 1855, as canwassed, when Barstow was given the certificate

CARL SCHURZ "AT HOME."-Just before elec tion, the News made a violent attack upon CARL SCHURZ, the Republican numines for Lieutenant Governor, and undertook to prove that he was not only unfit for the office, but unpopular among his own countrymen. Among other things, the

Let it be remembered that these circumstan ces occurred only one year ago, and that they are fresh on the minps of the people of Water-town,—and then the reader can form an opinion as to how Mr. Schurz will run at home. We have made careful inquiry, of Germans and others, in Wetertown, respecting his chances there, and all agree that he will not receive as large a vote as mound be given to almost any other man.

The vote of Watertown, thirteen majority for SCHURZ, while the Democratic majority in the city is some 200, shows how in careful" must have been the "inquiry" and how reliable the information of the News, as to the standing of

A "Lorr" Bry. The following letter appeared in the News some few days before the election WARKSHA, Oct. 26, 1857.

To the Editor of the Daily News ; You will recollect that this county gave Framour about 900 majority—this tall we elect one Senator and five memoers of the Assembly. Now, I propose to make a small wager that the Dem-ocrata will elect a Senator and four of the five I propose, to an account will elect a Senator and total will be the Members of Assembly. In other words I will be $100 that Assembly. In other words I will be the Senate, and $100, each, that Ww. F. THE NEWHALL HOUSE .- Reports are in circulation, in different quarters, that the Newhall House is about to be closed. There is no foundation whatever for the story. Notwithstanding he hard times and the large decrease in business and pieasure travel, this fall, the Newhall House has been doing remarkably well ever since it opened. . It is, we believe, the concurrent testinony of all, whether residents, or strangers, who have tested the qualities of this fine hotel, that in point of convenient arrangement, pleasant and airy rooms, excellent cuisine, civil attendance and gentlemanly and pains taking hosts, the Newhall House is without a superior in the West. It is, in all respects, a first class house, and amply deserves the liberal patronage extended to it. SENTENDE OF JOSEPH BURNS .- Judge McAnrnus, after denying the motion for a new trial, in the case of Joseph Burns, who was tried and found guilty, of killing Fischerdick, sentenced the prisoner to imprisonment in the State Prison during the term of his natural life; three days to be solitary confinement.

University of Milwaukee Resopen-We learn that the Trustees of this institution have made an arrangement for re-opening the Academic Department, in the upper part of the building which it formerly occupied, and which is now owned by the city. The School opened yesterday, under the charge of JONATHAN FORD, a teacher, his well-known ability, and former success in his profession, will, we trust, secure to the school an abundant share of patrousge. The Wisconsin, whose editoris, we believe, a Trustee of the University, says;

We are happy to state that the arrangements made with Mr. Form are of such a nature that the finances of the institution cannot become embarrassed as they heretofore have been. No further calls will be made on those who subscribed to the "endownen, fund." It is designed, if possible, to make the institution self-supporting; while at the same time the tariff of tuition is very low—being five, seven and nine dollars for a term of fourteen weeks, according to the studies pursued. For the full and winter term fifty cents extra will be churged for incidental expenses, and for the summer term twenty-five cents.

Suitable assistants to Mr. Form will be appointed in due time, and it is believed that a of the University, says;

So m Suitable assistants to Mr. Ford will be appointed in due time, and it is believed that a school will be kept up which in all respects will give satisfaction to its patrons.

We have only to add that should the school be successful, as we no doubt it will be, arrangements will be made at some future day to remove it from its present location and obtain a more suitable building for its accommodation, the nicens for doing which are already in part, it the bunds of the russees.

A MYSTERICES CHARACTER.-ID a solitary cave about four miles north of this city, lives a young female, entirely isolated from the world. She has frequently been seen, for some time past, going in the direction of her burbarous abode, and some were led to suppose that she was a dishonest character, and made this place a receptacle for stolen goods. The police were apprised of the matter, and the day before yesterday, policemen A. Beck and Dodge went out to discover who this mysterious personage might be. After some scarching, they succeeded in fluding her cave. It is in a ravine on the lake shore, and the brush is so thick around there that it was Rhine, Russell, Moselle, Scott, Abbott, and with difficulty they reached it. The found in the cave, which is nothing but a hole deg under the county gives Raudall about 200 majority. the bank, an old German prayer book, and a few rags. A short distance from it they found some dishes and cooking utensils, but they did not at first find the occupant of this lonely pot Not satisfied with their investigation, they secreted themselves in the brush close by, and towards night, they detected the object of their search coming towards her resting place with a load of fire wood upon her back, and a little bag of flour. She then proceeded to make a fire at the entrance of her cave, and was preparing to cook her supper when the police showed themselves. She did not appear at all slarmed at their presence, but she either could not or would ot speak to them.

One of them tried to make her underst and that he would give her something to eat and a place to sleep in if she would come to his house, but she signified her preference to remain in her lonely abods. She was quite poorly clad, butthey say she is rather intelligent looking. There is a beaten path to her cave, and it is hought she must have lived here a long time.-As the police found nothing objectionable or suspicious about this eccentric young woman, they concluded to leave her alone in her solitude. THE ATLANTIC MONTELY.-KEMPSHALL has received a new supply of the Atlantic Monthly.—.

It grows in favor upon better acquaintance, and may be called a decided success. The Personal Reminiscences of Douglas Jerrold will interest every reader. The Autocrat of the Breaklast Table, Pendlam, and Akin by Marriage, are no commonplace ordinary Magazine papers. There is a paper on British India, ably written and in a more kindly tone towards England than we often see in American publications.

A Boston correspondent of the Springfield Republican, who is evidently behind the scenes at the publication office of the new Magazine, furnishes the following information :

The article on Douglas Jerrold is from the per of James Hanney, an English writer of some reputation; Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote "Illusions," and the poetry on pp. 46, 47 and 48; Miss Rose Tenney, of Hartford, is the author of Saily Parson's Duty;" the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table" is from the pen of O. W. Holmes : Charles C. Hazewell wrate the article on "British India;" Park Godwin "The Financial Flurry;" Charles E. Norton, of Cambridge, "The Manchester Exhibition:" Mrs. Harriet Seecher Stowe "The Mourning Veil;" Calvin W. Philleo, "Akin by Marriage;" James Russell Lowell, "The Origin of Didactic Poetry;"

J. R. Trowbridge, "Pendlam, a Modern Refor-"The Romanny Girl," is by Ralph Waldo Emerson. "Florentine Mosaics" was contributed by J. L. Modey, the historian; and "Santa Fi omena" by Longfellow.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO ME. JOHNSON .-On Monday evening next a complimentary bene fit is to be given at Young's Hall to Mr. W. F. JOHNSON, and to add to the interest of the coca sion Mr. M. B. Coomus has kindly volunteered to play Shylock. The performance will be well worth seeing, and will attract, we hope, a crowded house. Mr. Johnson is a veteran actor and a most estimable man. He has now resided nearly two years in our city, and has made many friends by his genial and gentlemanly qualities. Though most of the time an invalid, and not overbur thened with worldly goods, he has borne up manfully against every discouragement, and maintained alike the cheerfulness of his temper. and the integrity of his character. As a come lian, Mr. Johnson has few superiors on the stage and we know of no man connected with the pro fession who is more worthy the respect and condence of his fellow-men, or more deserving of a substantial and generous testimonial from his friends and the public. BENEFIT OF R. J. MILLER .- This evening Mr. R. J. Miller takes a benefit at the Metropolitan Theatre, Mr. Miller is a popular actor, and he me become quite a favorite with our theatre going public. There are three pieces on the programme, and Messrs. Johnson and Muliholiand take part in the performances. The entertainment will doubtless be one of the best of the season, and we hope to see a full house. Common Council Meering .- A special meeting of the Council was called last night for the purpose of canvassing the election returns in this city. The Mayor and 16 Aldermen present. The returns were not all in, and after transacting some business of little interest the Council adjourned to this evening at the usual hour.

MILWAUKEE: PRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6.

A Light Vote. The returns of the late election in this State, as they are gradually received, show that the ap. prehensions of the Republican press, that only light vote would be polled, were but too well founded. In the great majority of the country towns, where the main strength of the Republicans lies, the vote has fallen off from 25 to 80 per cent, since last fall. The Republicans are the chief sufferers by this decrease in the aggregate vote, though in some counties, such as Milwaukee, Washington, Ozaukee, &c., the Democrats are the losers. The vote of both parties is much less than it was last year, but the proper. tionate loss of the Republicans is much the

Well Done Watertown!.. What they think of Carl Schurz at Home! We learn from Mr. Quines, of the Watertown Chronicle, that Cross' majority in that city is only about 150, being a falling off of nearly 100 from last year, while Mr. Schuzz has 13 majority. That shows the esteem in which Mr. Schurz is held by his fellow citizens, who know him best. Chappel, dem., for the Senate has about 80

Missouri Banks.—The Legislature of Missouri is in session, and the suspended condition of the banks of the State is under discussion. A bill has been reported suspending all clauses in the bank charters by which the charters are forfeited by a refusal to pay specie. It also permits the banks to go on and do business upon the circulation already issued to them by the Bank Commissioner under the law, until the 1st of November, 1858. ... The bill originated in the House and a vote has been taken which is considered playorable to its passage by a decided majority.
